“Community Giants To Receive Awards”

Riviera Beach, FL (USA), October 2, 2008: Golf has been economically extremely important within our greater community for many years. Our parent's livelihoods have and continue to depend on the sport. ICYG has therefore decided to identify and honor those “giants” who have directly or indirectly contributed to the future of our children and their children being able to enjoy this great sport called golf! It is the way to the future of our youth – “Golf is the carrot & Education is the Key.”

An ICYG “giant is a role model to our young golfers; a person who goes the extra mile for the community; a person who shares the life skills inherent in the game of golf; an outstanding volunteer; one who demonstrates extraordinary character, exemplifies exceptional ability and is important without wearing it on his or her sleeves.” In 2002, ICYG established its “Annual Community Services Luncheon and Auction.” Its tradition since then has been to “celebrate” our awardees at a prominent occasion. The following is a list of those “giants” who have been honored and celebrated.

2003: Charles Collins, III, Esmeralda H. Duffus, Alma Horne, Frederick Price, Nancy Pugliese & Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation
