

“Retired Miami Educator and Coach Appointed ICYG Director of Golf”

Riviera Beach, FL (USA), March 1, 2008: Dade County Florida retired coach and educator for approximately thirty five years, Clewis Wright, Jr. has been appointed Director of Golf, Inner City Youth Golfers’, Inc. (ICYG) by Esmeralda H. Knowles, Executive Director and confirmed by the Board of Directors. She was very pleased to have someone with his qualities, willingness to help and who shares the same vision for our children volunteer to become a member of the ICYG Family. She said, “I am glad that he moved to Palm Beach County.”

Upon acceptance of his appointment, he indicated his appreciation to Mrs. Knowles. He stressed that “his excitement with the appointment was because ICYG was truly working to grow the game of golf with our children.” He also stated that “his goal is to teach the game of golf to the youth because they will be able to use the game as a hobby or a career.” Clewis loves the game of golf.

Clewis recently founded “Clewis Wright, Jr. & Associates, Inc.” and serves as the Executive Director. His company specializes in golf event planning, site selection, marketing, onsite management and consulting company. He is also a renown “youth motivational speaker.”

Among his past affiliations, he has served as President and Tournament Director: The Miami Golf Connection and Sunshine State Amateur Golfers Association, Inc. (Florida, USA). His other current golf affiliations include The Golfe, Fairview Golf Club and the African American Golfers Hall of Fame.

He received a Bachelor of Science from Bethune Cookman College, Daytona Beach, FL in 1969 and his Masters of Science in Administration and Supervision from Nova University, Davie, FL in 1976.

Coach Wright at his best! Don’t underestimate him!

