

Inner City Youth Golfers' Incorporated

Press Release

“FAMU Graduate Appointed ICYG Youth Golf Advisor”

Written by: Malachi Knowles, Westside Gazette Golf Editor

Riviera Beach, FL (USA), April 30, 2009: ICYG Executive Director, Esmeralda H. Knowles recently announced the appointment of Stanley A. Wilson as its “Youth Golf Advisor.” Mrs. Knowles stated, “he is an enthusiastic, energetic, astute, mild mannered, caring and understanding young man.”

He has not looked back since graduating with “Honors” on August 9, 2008 from the School of Business and Industry, Florida A&M University (FAMU), Tallahassee, FL where he distinguished himself on the golf team, 2006-08. He is looking forward to graduate school at Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton, FL but has already begun his “professional golf working career” at Bear Lakes Country Club, West Palm Beach, FL on September 28, 2008 as “Pro Shop Assistant.” He is excited about his work and his future. His father, Stanley A. Wilson, Sr., an athlete and retired Dade County School educator/coach said, “I am very proud of my son and look forward to being with him every step of his career.”

In hind cite, Stanley, Jr. probably got his on the job training to be “Youth Golf Advisor” as a mentor of kids between the ages of 11 – 17 years old in the Dade County Florida area (100 Black Men, Cagni Recreation Park) in his early high school days until now. “Stanley is perfect for the position,” said Director of Golf, Clewis Wright, Jr.

Stanley thanked ICYG for his appointment and indicated that he looks forward to being an asset to the kids.

Among his past affiliations, White and Gold Honor Society, Pi Sigma Epsilon, Minority Business Student Association, 100 Black Men of Greater Fort Lauderdale, INROADS are among his past affiliations. He also received an HONORS Scholarship from the Southern Chapter of the PGA of America – January 2006, Named 2003 Junior Minority Golfer of the Year - and 2003-04 Golfer of the Year.

He is currently making plans to greet his former “FAMU Golf Team Members” in Palm Beach County during the period May 6-10, 2009 when they come to the PGA Golf Club, Port St. Lucie, FL to participate in the 23rd National Minority Collegiate Golf Championship hosted by the PGA of America.

Photo Credit: Esmeralda H. Knowles (Stanley demonstrates hitting an iron at impact and completing the swing.)

