

Inner City Youth Golfers' Incorporated

Press Release

“Florida Governor Crist Chose Taylor For District 7 Commission Seat”

Written by: Malachi Knowles, Reporter

Riviera Beach (USA), July 3, 2009: Governor Charlie Crist has chosen Florida District 84 Representative, Priscilla Taylor, D-West Palm Beach to fill the vacated Palm Beach County Board of Commissioners, District 7 Seat. Priscilla Taylor has accepted. Ms. Taylor has communicated her thanks to Governor Crist and vowed to that “she will serve all of the people with distinction.”

Ms. Taylor has indicated that she is ready to go to work for the people. She will bring more than ten (10) years of state, local and Port of Palm Beach knowledge to the job. Friends, neighbors, church members, elected and appointed officials have collectively indicated their appreciation for the Governor’s decision and look for to being supportive.

Ms. Taylor served admirably as the Chairwoman, Port of Palm Beach District Commission and subsequently elected to the Florida House of Representatives in 2004 to present. She was Democratic Whip 2004-2006. She also served on the Palm Beach County Criminal Justice Commission, National Advisory Board of Inner City Youth Golfers’, Inc. and Workforce Development Board to name a few.

Representative Taylor resides in West Palm Beach, Florida. She is the owner of PT Insurance Agency. Representative Taylor has a BS from Barry University and an M.B.A. from Palm Beach Atlantic University. Priscilla has two children Vita and Sean. She is a member of Grace Episcopal Church, West Palm Beach. She loves to read and jog in her leisure time and has pledged to learn how to play golf with ICYG.

Photo by Esmeralda H. Knowles

Cutline: (1) Representative Taylor thanking Governor Crist.

